Scottish Week 1 - w/c 18th January

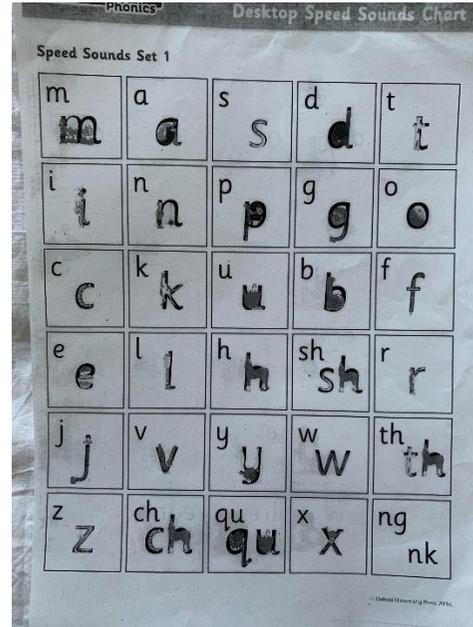

In the run up to Burns night we will be focusing on learning new things about being Scottish.

Literacy Reading	Literacy	Numeracy
Lesson 1 - Revise all Set 1 and 2 sounds. Revise your RWI sounds. Mild = Set 1 (all the main phonic sounds likes,a,p,n etc) Spicy = set 2 (sounds such as oo, ai, igh etc). Hot= Or you know all of these sounds and can read. Read for 20 minutes a day. I have provided 2 sheets below to show what are set 1 and Set 2 sounds. You can check with your child which ones they think they know. They can Revise their sounds or they can try a new one. A typical lesson would include saying the letter sound, writing the letter/sound in the air, writing the letter on paper (correct formation of the letter) and writing some words beginning with that letter. Then reading some words with that letter in the word.	I am learning about new words in the Scottish Language Today we are going to focus on a few Scottish words that perhaps you didn't know already. Some of them are spelt differently from what we are used to. Look at this link in You Tube about Scots Language Scots Words. Then have a look at this sheet at the bottom of this grid with lots of adjectives in Scots. Or look it up on Google Classroom. You will need an adult to read the Scottish words to you. See, if you can guess what they mean? Then the adult will tell you what they mean. You don't need to do any more than this, as you will be using some of these Scottish words in your Writing lesson, The words are also at the bottom of this grid and are bigger, so you can read them. You will need to refer back to these Scottish words when you come to do your Writing Lesson today/tomorrow. If you want a challenge you could write 3 sentences into your jotter using as many of your newly learned	Mild - I am learning to add Number Bonds to 10 Spicy and Hot - I am learning to add Number Bands to 20 Only do One of the following Mild, Spicy, Hot tasks. Let your child choose which one they think they would like to do. PowerPoints for these are up on Google Classrooms as well as the worksheets shown here. The worksheets are also on Google Classroom and I will put them larger at the bottom of this grid if you wish to print out.

You could revise up to 5 letters/sounds a day.

Scottish words. Remember Capital letters, finger saves and full stops.

Writing

I am learning to write a Scottish poem

You may never have come across poetry before. A poem is a piece of short writing that breaks all the rules of writing. It's often fun and can be very creative.

You are going to write a 3-5 line poem today about a Dug - a dog! Here is an example of the kind of poem you should create and a template for you to follow when writing the poem. Make sure you have the following:

- A Capital letter at the start of each line
- Use Scots words to describe your dug
- A full stop at the end of your poem
- Write each word on the line
- Finger spaces between words.

You can take a look at my example as well, but do not copy. It's just to give you an idea of the kind of thing I'm looking for. When you are finished you can draw a picture of your dug to go with your poem.

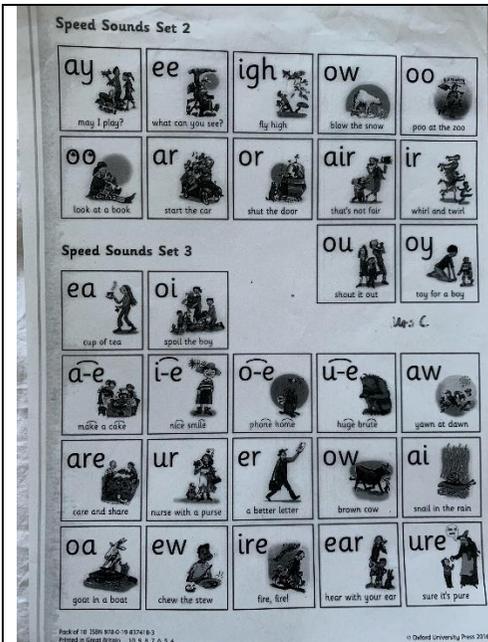

Mild - Number Bonds to 10.

Scottish Wildlife

Scottish wildlife means animals and plants that live in the wild in Scotland. Wildlife can be found in places like the countryside, towns, mountains and beaches.

There are many different kinds of Scottish wildlife. Sea eagles, ospreys and puffins are all wild birds found in Scotland.

Red deer, grey seals and hedgehogs are common mammals in Scotland.

Red squirrels and wildcats are endangered in Scotland. This means that their numbers are small in the wild and they are not seen very often.

I am learning to take a Sumdog Challenge

You have been set up to try a Sumdog Challenge. Go to the sumdog website and login with your username and password.

<https://www.sumdog.com/sc/>

The challenge will last from 18.1.21 from 9am until 12.00pm on 22.1.21

You can gain points and coins the better you do, so take care in your answers! If you are finding it too easy let me know! Do 20 minutes daily.

There is also a Midlothian Sumdog competition this week, Starting Friday 15th Jan, which you can also do. This goes on for a week and finished on Thursday 21st at 8pm. You have to get the answers correct to gain points, so don't rush your answers. Once you have completed all their questions that will be your entry. Good Luck!

Maths

I am learning to add coins together to an amount

On the worksheets add the various coins together. Start with the largest coins then add the smaller ones. Choose the level which is good for you. Don't do them all.

Mild = Eg $1p + 2p + 2p + 1p + 2p =$

Add all the 2p's first which equals 6p then add the two 1ps, which comes to 8p.

Sweet summer raspberries folded into cream flavoured with honey, whisky and toasted oatmeal - what could be more delicious?

Ingredients

2 tbsp medium oatmeal

300g fresh British raspberries

a little caster sugar

350ml double cream (we used Jersey double cream)

2 tbsp heather honey

2-3 tbsp whisky, to taste

Method

STEP 1

To toast the oatmeal, spread it out on a baking sheet and grill until it smells rich and nutty. It will not darken quickly, so use your sense of smell to tell you when it is nutty enough. Cool the oatmeal.

STEP 2

Make a raspberry purée by crushing half the fruit and sieving. Sweeten this to taste with a little caster sugar. Whisk the double cream until just set, and stir in the honey and whisky, trying not to over-whip the cream. Taste the mix and add more of either if you feel the need.

STEP 3

Stir in the oatmeal and whisk lightly until the mixture is just firm. Alternate layers of the cream with the remaining whole raspberries and purée in 4 serving dishes. Allow to chill slightly before eating.

Lesson 2

I am learning to record the food I eat in order to think about more healthy eating choices.

Firstly name the countries in the UK and label the worksheet. Colour Scotland in. You may need an adult to help you and show you which country is which.

Then there is a PowerPoint on Google Classroom which shows you where the cities are and tells you about some famous landmarks. Have a look at it and then use the slide with the map on it to help you complete the worksheet below.

I am learning to create my own Tartan

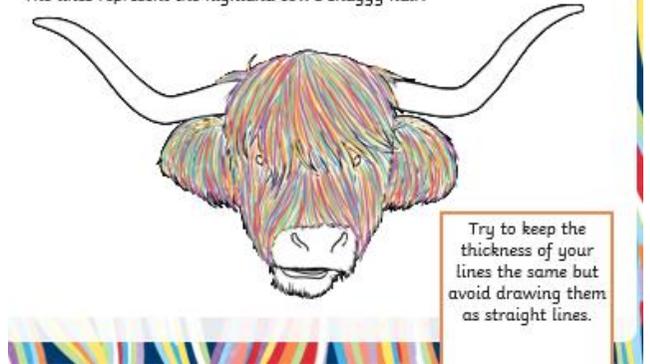

Look at the slide below which shows you lots of different tartans. A tartan is a piece of cloth with the same striped pattern repeated over and over again with lots of different coloured lines in different sizes of breadth. This looks like squares which are intersected by stripes and this is called a "sett". Tartan was worn in olden times in Scotland and was a symbol which showed which clan you style to Steven Brown. It says in the PowerPoint to use oil pastels but you can just use pens or crayons or colouring pencils.

Here are some Tartan Examples

Tartan Examples

Now using 3-4 colours and perhaps a ruler, you create your own tartan and then colour it in.

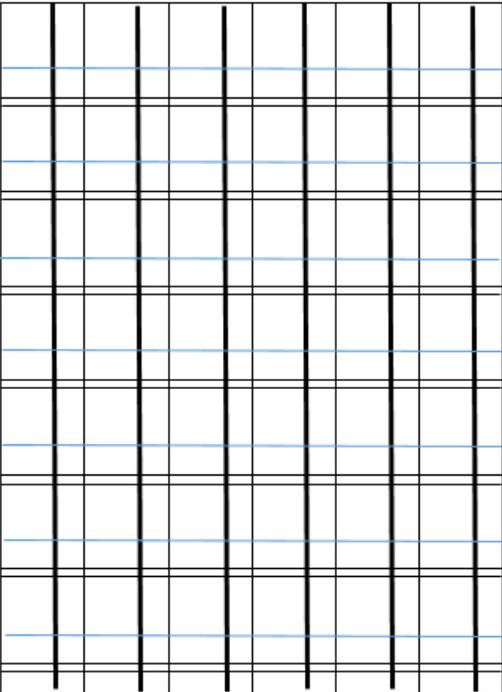

It might help to draw it like this first as a grid, then colour it in.

Next, choose a neutral colour for the horns and nose.

Send me a picture of the final result. 😊
